

Quiz 5A

Name _____

A. Write T if the statement is true. Write F if the statement is false.

- _____ 1. Arya was the written language of the Aryans.
- _____ 2. Sir John Hubert Marshall was a scholar who studied languages.
- _____ 3. The Aryans were warlike people.
- _____ 4. The Harappan civilization had indoor plumbing and running water.
- _____ 5. The Aryan civilization began around 2300 BC.

B. Fill in the blank.

- _____ 6. A wind that reverses direction with the change of season is called a _____.
- _____ 7. Three possible explanations why the Harappan civilization suddenly disappeared are an invasion, a _____, or a famine.
- _____ 8. Because the Himalaya Mountains separate India from the rest of the continent, India is often called the Indian _____.
- _____ 9. Archaeologists have not been able to unravel the mysteries of the Harappan civilization because they do not know the people's _____.
- _____ 10. A scholar who studies languages is called a _____.

Quiz 5B

Name _____

A. Match the description with the correct term or name.

- _____ 1. Buddha's list of good works
- _____ 2. began the religion called Hinduism
- _____ 3. the great god called the great soul or world soul
- _____ 4. the sacred books of Hinduism
- _____ 5. gained understanding
- _____ 6. began the religion called Buddhism

- A. Aryans
- B. Brahman
- C. Eightfold Path
- D. enlightened
- E. Four Noble Truths
- F. Siddhartha Gautama
- G. Vedas

B. Write the correct answer.

- _____ 7. Dharma is the duty that a _____ must follow to become part of Brahman.
- _____ 8. The belief that a person lives more than once in different bodies is called _____.
- _____ 9. People that were rejected by others and were outside the caste system were called outcastes or _____.
- _____ 10. Buddhism teaches that _____ can be overcome by getting rid of desires and wants.