Teacher Information

The reproducible masters on the CD-ROM supplement the daily lessons in ENGLISH 6: Writing and Grammar, Second Edition. Since each teaching situation is different, these masters are provided to help you adapt to your students' needs.

Extra Practice Blackline Masters

Each Extra Practice Blackline Master correlates with a lesson in the grammar chapters and the study and reference skills chapter for the student worktext. There are also correlating blackline masters for each chapter review lesson that students can use as study guides for the chapter tests.

Ideas for using the Extra Practice pages:

- as seatwork to practice grammar concepts during reading-group time, quiet time, morning starters
- as homework while teaching the correlating lesson
- as a review of grammar concepts while teaching the writing chapters
- as a tool to reteach concepts to students who are struggling

Keeping Up Transparency Masters

The Keeping Up Transparency Masters are an optional daily grammar practice designed to be used during the writing chapters. Each practice consists of five items for each student to answer on his own paper or for the class to review together. This practice is easily adaptable to a variety of student needs and classroom schedules.

Ideas for using the Keeping Up pages:

- as a warm-up during the introductory morning schedule
- as a grammar review at the beginning of the writing lessons
- as a language arts center activity

If you do not have access to an overhead projector, you may want to write the exercises on the board or reproduce them for each student.

One-on-One When using the Extra Practice and Keeping Up activities with one student, you may direct the student to read the activities from the computer screen and to write his answers on a separate sheet of paper or to give his answers orally.

Writing Rubrics and Activity Pages

The Writing Rubrics and Activity Pages are provided for teachers who find it easier to print out the page than to photocopy the page located in the Teacher's Edition.
