David Livingstone
Livingstone traveled extensively in Africa as an explorer and missionary. He also did some writing and determined to show Christ's love to those he met.
AD 1813–1873

Samson Occom
The first Native American to preach to a European congregation, Occom also did some writing and determined to show Christ's love to those he met.
AD 1723–1792

Crucifixion and Resurrection
The blood of Christ shed on the cross was sufficient to pay for all sins. His resurrection proved His power over death.
AD 30

Christ's Birth
God chose the right parents for His Son. Jesus' mother was a virgin, and His earthly father was a godly man.
ca. change from BC to AD

Ezra
As a Jewish priest in captivity in Babylon, Ezra returned to Jerusalem to teach the law of God and to encourage the Jews to forsake sin.
ca. 458 BC

Esther
Esther willingly obeyed God and risked her life to save the Jews from destruction.
474 BC

Habakkuk
After Habakkuk complained that wicked people were prospering, God assured him that they would be punished. Habakkuk praised God for His perfect way and timing.
ca. 608 BC

King Joash
High priest Jehoiada faithfully protected and instructed King Joash, who was faithful to the Lord until Jehoiada died.
835–796 BC

King Solomon
Solomon was wise but not obedient. God allowed him to build the temple where God's Word was taught.
992–931 BC

Moses
God called Moses from a burning bush and worked miracles through him.
ca. 1525–1405 BC

Jacob
Although Jacob was not Isaac's firstborn son, it was God's plan that Jacob received the blessing.
ca. 2005–1858 BC

Days of Creation
From eternity past (before Creation) God planned for the salvation of mankind. In six literal days God created the heavens and the earth.
(The Beginning of Time)

Charles Spurgeon
Spurgeon, a preacher and author, took every opportunity to tell the gospel. His ministry continues today through his printed sermons and writings.
AD 1834–1892

Isaac Watts
After seeing a need concerning church music, Watts wrote more than six hundred hymns in two years.
AD 1674–1748

Martin Luther
Called a heretic by the Catholic Church for believing the Bible, Luther authored books and hymns and translated the Bible into German.
AD 1483–1546

John the Apostle
While exiled on the Isle of Patmos, John had a vision and wrote the book of Revelation. It foretells many events about the end times and the Second Coming of Christ.
1st century

Polycarp
Polycarp was a student of John the Apostle and was persecuted for his faith. He was burned at the stake for refusing to deny Christ.
AD 61–147

Nehemiah
After much prayer, Nehemiah organized the Jews at Jerusalem to work together to rebuild the city walls.
445–410 BC

Zechariah
Zechariah prophesied about Israel, Christ as the coming Messiah and as King at His Second Coming.
ca. 520 BC
